Applications Being Accepted for the Unks Undergraduate Travel Fellowship [1]

February 5, 2019

The Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs is pleased to administer ?The Gerald Unks Undergraduate Travel Fellowship.? The awards are to be made to deserving Carolina students with applicable travel plans. The travel fellowship fund is made possible by the very gracious contributions of Dr. Gerald Unks who has established a permanent University trust fund for this purpose. Applications are due no later than Friday, March 8 at 5 p.m. The awards of the fellowship will be made in April, and the recipients will be immediately notified. There is no specific application form or format for the

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Retires [2]

October 16, 2018
Friends, colleagues and former students recently gathered to wish Winston Crisp a grand farewell at his retirement celebration after more than 26 years with the university and more than eight as Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. "I will always be grateful for my Carolina experience, and for the blessing of working for and with you all, Crisp said in a message to staff. "You have given me a chance to pursue my dreams, find a home, and to serve my alma mater. I am grateful to you all beyond measure. Thank you again for the meaningful relationships and for your deep and abiding love

Strategic Partnership to Enhance Campus Y’s Social Impact

October 8, 2018

Strategic Partnership to Enhance Campus Y’s Social Impact

A new partnership between UNC Student Affairs and Innovate Carolina will enhance the work of Carolina students pursuing creative solutions that address today’s most pressing social challenges.

Based upon the Campus Y’s expanding focus on social innovation and entrepreneurship, this collaboration will boost the high-impact, student-driven work of the Y and jumpstart a broader campus-wide social innovation initiative. The two offices will jointly oversee the Campus Y building, staff,
Week of Welcome 2018

August 16, 2018

Returning students and the new students were all welcomed back with Week of Welcome activities and events! The weekend kicked off with Chancellor Folt and Vice Chancellor Crisp assisting with move-ins on Saturday across campus, followed by New Student Convocation in Carmichael Arena and Fall Fest on Hooker Fields on Sunday. Convocation invites transfer students and first-year students of the Class of 2022 to join Chancellor Folt and distinguished guests in a ceremony marking their beginning as a Tar Heel. Hosted by the Carolina Union and now in its 22nd year, FallFest has become an

NPHC Garden Groundbreaking

November 1, 2017
The NPHC (National Pan-Hellenic Council, Inc.) Garden Project kicked off its fundraising campaign on October 29 with a breakfast, program and groundbreaking on what will be the site of the NPHC Garden in the SASB Plaza. More than 100 NPHC alumni and current students showed up for the event organized by Student Affairs and the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life and Community Involvement. Several charter members from the NPHC sororities and fraternities were in attendance and spoke on how excited they were to see the garden finally happening.

The garden will

Read More [6]

Carolina Veterans Resource Center Opens [7]

October 9, 2017

The Carolina Veterans Resource Center (CRVC) opened recently to serve and support the Carolina student veteran and military-affiliated students. The CRVC will serve as a central location for military-affiliated people to find resources and a community to support and aide them during their journey as Tar Heels. This location contains study space, a lounge, conference/meeting space, and a lactation room. Campus and community partners will be present in this space to bring enhanced services to the military-affiliated student population.
Fall Fest 2017

August 25, 2017

The 21st annual FallFest celebration provided new and returning Tar Heels will have the opportunity to learn about academic departments, student organizations, and campus recreation opportunities to enhance their Carolina experience. Thousands of students came out to FallFest held which was held at Carmichael Arena and Hooker Fields.

Convocation 2017

August 25, 2017

Jacob Sharp, UNC class of 2013 and member of the band Mipso, speaks during New student Convocation. Convocation and Fall Fest were held at Carmichael Arena and Hooker Fields on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Sunday August 20, 2017.

Carolina Summer Orientation Underway
June 15, 2017

New Student and Family Programs (NSFP) hired more than 70 talented and diverse student leaders (Orientation Leaders, Project Coordinators, Tar Heel Beginnings Co-Chairs & Board Members, Transfer Student Ambassadors and Undergraduate Fellows) to help welcome more than 8,000 new students and their families to UNC Chapel Hill. All of our student leaders and staff work together to implement New Student & Family Orientation, Summer Send-Offs, Week of Welcome (WOW), New Student Convocation, Tar Heel Beginnings Programming, Carolina Family Weekend and more. These students and staff will

Read More [10]

2017 Final Four [11]

March 31, 2017

Our Tar Heel Men’s Basketball team is returning to the Final Four for a record 20th time this weekend. The semi-final game against Oregon will be played on Saturday and the National Championship game is slated for Monday. Victories in these games will undoubtedly be cause for celebration. Please review the information below so that everyone can enjoy a safe celebration.

Safety First

No one wants to see a Tar Heel victory marred by personal injury or damage to property. The North Carolina Jaycee Burn Center has treated 79

Read More [11]
Embark Carolina [12]

January 25, 2017

Embark Carolina is a new, dynamic resource in the university’s effort to open access to global opportunities so that more diverse students can pursue more diverse experiences. Explore the Global Guide to help you find an opportunity and search the Funding Finder to help you fund it. Visit http://embark.unc.edu/ [13] to learn more!

Gary Alan Miller Appointed as Director of UCS [14]

January 13, 2017

After a competitive national search, Gary Alan Miller has been appointed as the Director of University Career Services at UNC Chapel Hill. Gary is currently the Executive Director of the Career Center at Hofstra University and has over 20 years of extensive experience in higher education. He has nearly 10 years of previous experience at UNC Chapel Hill including the Senior Assistant Dean in the Academic Advising Program, Assistant Director for Social Media and Innovation in University Career Services, and other roles on campus. Gary is a frequent writer and speaker in the field,

Read More [14]
Exhibit Honors Former UNC Chancellor [15]

December 5, 2016

Family and friends of former UNC Chancellor Nelson Ferebee Taylor gathered on Friday, Nov. 18 to honor the late chancellor as they unveiled an exhibit in his honor. The exhibit, is located in the residence hall also named for the chancellor, highlights key milestones from Taylor’s life before, during and after his tenure as chancellor. One of the pictures featured Glenn Williams who was featured playing a banjo on the night he and Taylor spent the night in Hinton James Residence Hall in response to students requests for air conditioning in the halls.

Don Boulton, former UNC Vice

Read More [15]

MALES Pin Lineage Kickoff [16]

October 4, 2016

Students and alumni joined together recently for the 2016 MALES Pin Lineage Kickoff. The program, which partners current students and alumni men of color, is in its second year and has more than 120 participants. First year students got to meet their mentors for the first time and upper class students got to reconnect with their mentors. Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Winston Crisp welcomed the crowed and reminded them of the program’s purpose. Tim Minor, vice president for University Advancement at University of North Carolina General Administration, delivered the keynote address to Welcome Class of 2020! [17]

September 6, 2016

Specific accomplishments include:

- Serving in the U.S. Army as an Apache Pilot in Command (Chief Warrant Officer Two) in Afghanistan;

- Earning a scholarship through the U.S. Navy for the prestigious Navy Seaman to Admiral program;

- Winning championships in soccer, swimming, basketball, football, equitation and track—including a gold medal in hurdling for Team USA in the International Association of Athletics Federations competition in Poland;
- Achieving on the highest level in the arts—writing, music, dance
2016 FallFest [18]

August 17, 2016

FallFest marks the unofficial start of the academic year and welcome back for students! More than 25,000 students, staff, faculty, alumni, and Carolina community members will be out for a night of free food, performances by student groups, recruitment of students into student organizations, and the education of all students about Carolina’s unique and special student culture. Join us in the S11 Skipper Bowles Parking Lot, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and the Kenan Flagler Business School from 8:15 p.m. and ends at 2 a.m.

New and returning students are encouraged to visit

Read More [18]

Week of Welcome [19]

August 15, 2016

The Week of Welcome (WOW), kicks off Tar Heel Beginnings, intentionally designed fall programs seeking to introduce new students to the expectations, resources, and involvement opportunities during their first semester at UNC-Chapel Hill. WOW programs assist new first-year and transfer students through their transition to Carolina, connect with faculty, staff and students and get acquainted with the Carolina Community.

First Generation Welcome [20]

August 15, 2016

Vice Chancellor Winston Crisp and other members of Carolina’s faculty, staff and Board of Trustees who were the first in their families to graduate from college welcomed fellow firsts to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in a new video entitled

Read More [20]

Carolina Summer Reading [21]

August 11, 2016

The 2016 Carolina Summer Reading selection committee comprised of faculty, staff, and students selected 'Being Mortal' by Atul Gawande. Being Mortal shows that the ultimate goal is not a good death but a good life all the way to the very end.

In his bestselling books, Atul Gawande, a practicing surgeon, has fearlessly revealed the struggles of his profession. Now he examines its ultimate limitations and failures in his own practices as well as others as life draws to a close. And he discovers how we can do better. He follows a hospice nurse on her rounds, a

Read More [21]
May 5, 2016

Recipients of the 2016 Frances L. Phillips Travel Scholarship were treated to a reception by the selection committee. The reception invited recipients a chance to meet each other, and celebrate with family, friends and those who nominated them for the scholarship. The Phillips Travel Scholarship provides an opportunity for Juniors and Seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences at The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill who attended high school in North Carolina to engage in individual self-designed and directed international travel experiences for periods ranging from two months.

Read More

Source URL: https://studentaffairs.unc.edu/news-and-events/news

Links
[18] https://studentaffairs.unc.edu/news-events/features/2016-fallfest