Winston Crisp is a 1989 graduate of Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, NC and a 1992 graduate of the UNC School of Law. He began his career at UNC after his graduation in 1992 working as the school's first full-time assistant dean for student affairs and the first associate dean for student services. He moved to Student Affairs as the Assistant Vice Chancellor in 2005. He was appointed as Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs in May 2010.